

(jump down for solution)

This puzzle was a teaser that was released a week before the Puzzle Hunt began. The goal here was to encourage hunters to watch the videos which were released in the weeks leading up to the hunt and get excited for the big day.

Solvers are given a list of words and the names of the various locations of the videos. The words are all words that appear in only one of the videos. The solvers should take the words that match the video's locations and then take the letters from these words that are indicated by the spaces.

After watching all the videos, the solvers would get the phrase “Our answer lies within the sky.” This was, at least on the surface, a phrase that was relevant to the weather theme, but also referenced a plot element: the antenna for The Weather Machine hidden on CMU's campus was later revealed to be a large metal art piece called Walking to the Sky.
